The Office of Institutional Equity (OIE) provides year-round training to support faculty and staff development opportunities to explore issues of pedagogy, classroom dynamics, and student/faculty relations in an increasingly diverse institutional setting.

Training programs and initiatives include Safe Space workshop, Webinar Series, Lunch and Learn, Breakfast Topics, as well as customized, department-specific training programs.

A new training series consisting of six workshops were introduced in Fall 2018 geared towards increasing cultural competency for supervisors, department chairs, managers, directors and above. The workshops have been offered in a general format, as well as tailored based on the request from specific departments.

The number of training sessions, number of topics covered, frequency of training sessions, 52 trainings offered since the Fall 2018 semester to date.

Continue to increase exposure for OIE events to increase participation from the campus community. Continue to identify new relevant areas of cultural competency and develop corresponding trainings.

University Dining Services' (UDS) partnership with the Cultural Event series provides exposure and opportunity to engage. Our menus include more ethnic and culturally specific offerings daily and featured in the Festival of Foods calendar of events. Campus Dietitian and Executive Chef participated in Nutrition Awareness events & Wellness programs to disseminate information on the dining program. They are continually accessible to engage with students and provide support for their particular dietary regimen.

Increase in meal attendance at events.
